

Question for consideration: What data should a learner be able to mark as private? Notes, yes. Anything else?

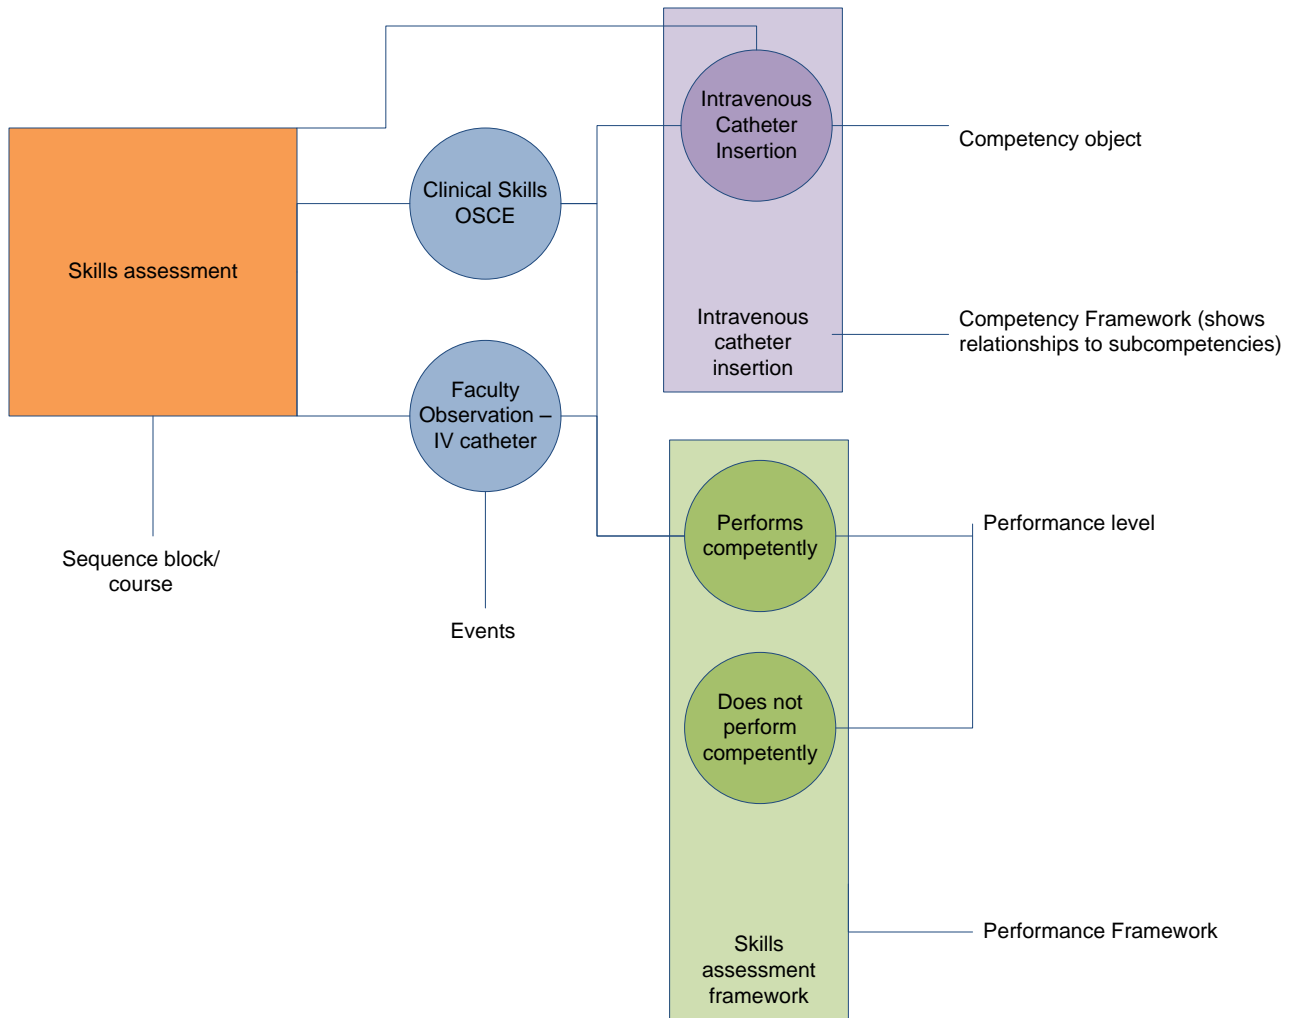

You can model an EPA/skill as a competency framework and competency object.

Performance levels can be associated with that competency object.

SequenceBlocks and Events can be associated with that competency object.

Any criteria associated with the assessment of that skill or EPA should be represented as an event.

Independent exams could be described as events in an independent "curriculum."

