

Data Analysis

This area contains any synthesis, review, or commentary that will help us identify what data should be represented using the standard.

Please see:

- Requirements produced in 2/11 meeting
- David Blake's memo to the group, 12/11/14.
- Financial Interest form, 1/23/2015
- Comments from Ross, 12/22/2014

Initial High Level Data Elements

Below is a strawman list of high level data elements. Once this list is solidified then each data element will be decomposed into lower level data elements.

Financial Relationship
Who has the relationship being disclosed (self, spouse/domestic partner, dependent child)
Company or Entity
Name
Contact information
Form of business
Type of entity
Website
If subsidiary, to who?
Finance And Ownership
Loans
Securities
Dividends
Carried Interest
Ownership Interest
Leases
Gifts
In-kind gifts
Services
Consulting
Speaker
Faculty
Employment
Review Activity
Manuscript Associated
Board member/Fiduciary
Officer
Expert Witness
Travel

Grant
Research (do we need all three values - educational grant, grant, and research?)
Educational Grant
Other
Intellectual Property
Patents
Copyrights
Trademark
Authorships
Data Ownerships
Identifiers
Name
Unique IDs
Contact information
Home institution
Specialty
Educational Background
Other identifying information
Metadata
Creation Info
Update Info
Permissions
Disclosure context/purpose
Non-Financial Relationship
Unpaid Professional Relationships
Family Relationships (Nepotism, Conflict of Interest, etc.)
Social Relationship