

Design principles

We will develop the standard in a way that enables interoperability with the following systems and strives for harmonizations with the relevant standards in those areas.

- Student record systems/transcripts (Higher Education Achievement Report of particular interest)
- Assessment systems