

Curriculum Inventory - Home

Welcome

The mission of the Curriculum Inventory Working Group is to develop XML standards for the exchange of curriculum data for benchmarking and educational research.

If you have questions about the MedBiquitous Curriculum Inventory Standard, please email medbiq@aamc.org.

Notes:

- Working group members can access the discussion list archives for the working group or send email to the group at curriculuminventory@medbiq.org.
- We also have an implementers mailing list open to all implementers.
- View the archives of the implementers list or request a subscription.
