Welcome

The mission of the MedBiquitous Activity Report Working Group is to develop XML standards and Web services requirements and descriptions to enable tracking of the learning and certification activities of physicians and other healthcare professionals.

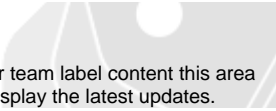

If you have questions about the MedBiquitous Activity Report Standard, please email medbiq@aamc.org.

Note: You can access the discussion archives for the working group, which range from July 2010 – February 2019.
