

Associate supporting materials, including video, with individual and group experiences to support formative assessment and activity evaluation

Use case title: Associate supporting materials, including video, with individual and group experiences to support formative assessment and activity evaluation

Author

Organization

ID	XIG-80
Title	Associate supporting materials, including video, with individual and group experiences to support formative assessment and activity evaluation.
Actors	Learner Learning Record Store (LRS) Portfolio/application that enables associating supporting materials with an activity
Trigger event	The learner or other individual has created a supporting material (video, audio, document, multimedia) related to an instruction or assessment activity and wants to associate those materials with an instruction or assessment activity.
Success end condition	The LRS associates the supporting material and the instruction or assessment activity.
Assumptions	There is a system that allows the individual to associate supporting material with an activity. That system is able to send XAPI messages to the LRS. The individual is identified to the portfolio The portfolio has access to the supporting material.
Description	The individual accesses an activity entry within a portfolio system. The individual uses the portfolio to associate supporting materials with an activity, providing a link to the materials or uploading the materials to the portfolio. The portfolio sends a message to the LRS indicating the relationship between the activity and the supporting materials.
Transaction	Portfolio sends a message to the LRS.
Exceptions	The portfolio doesn't have access to the supporting materials. the LRS doesn't have access to the supporting materials. The supporting materials are corrupted during upload.
Potential Standards	XAPI